FIREWORKS FUND NEEDS BIG BOOST

Treasurer Urges Citizens to Come to Rescue.

While donations for the safe and sane Fourth celebration are being received daily, George W. White, treasurer of the joint committee, says that unless some of the Washingtonians who subscribed last year come to the rescue, persons who enjoy fireworks will suffer when Independence Day arrives.

The money received so far has totaled but $1,000, and $2,000 additional will be needed. Circular letters are being sent out daily.

When Commissioner Rudolph returns to Washington on Monday another meeting of the committee will be held and contracts awarded.

Although scarcely one-third of the required amount has been raised, members of the committee say they are forced to decide what work is to be done, and they are hoping that patriotic Washingtonians will send in their subscriptions.

REFORMERS MAKE A UNITED OUTCRY

Oppose Cigarettes and the Moving Pictures.

Outcry against the cigarette habit and the moving picture shows was made by delegates to the quarterly convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union yesterday at the Eastern Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Zed M. Copp, in an address on "Juvenile delinquency in Washington," stated the moving picture shows, as now being conducted, are among the most conspicuous causes for juvenile delinquency in this city. Says Rev. Mr. Copp, often steal money and articles, which can easily be converted into money, to enable them to attend the shows.

Mrs. Nellie H. Bradley, who is in charge of the fight which the W. C. T. U. is making against the cigarette habit, made a report, which stated that 5,000 leaflets have recently been given out in the District schools, intended as useful weapons against the use of cigarettes. Rupt. Stuart is in sympathy with the movement, and has given permission for the distribution of the literature.

Rev. J. Milton Waldron, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist church, spoke on the condition and needs of the alley population of Washington.

DRUG COMPANY FINED.

Pays $250 for Giving Short Weight to Customer.

Representatives of the Christian Drug Company yesterday pleaded guilty in the Police Court to selling short-weight packages of drugs and paid fines amounting to $250.

The packages, according to the charge, were from the Christian Drug Company, 1220 14th St. N. W., and were found to contain less than the weight stated on the label.

COMMON-LAW WIFE FILES CLAIM TO DUNN'S ESTATE

Woman Asks Court to Establish Her Marriage by Decree and Enjoin His Daughters from Obtaining Property.

Asking the court to establish her marriage to James M. Dunn, now deceased, by a decree, and to set apart her dower interests in his estate, Mrs. Mary Roberts Dunn yesterday petitioned the court to enjoin Mary T. Dunn and Margaret M. Dunn, executrices of the estate of James M. Dunn, from further administering the estate and receiving its assets.

It is alleged by Mrs. Dunn, who is represented by Attorney W. E. Ambrose, that Mary T. Dunn and Margaret M. Dunn are the only heirs at law and next of kin of James M. Dunn, who died June 22, 1910, leaving an estate valued at $25,000, and that he left a will under which plaintiff was deprived of her interest in the estate.

Mrs. Dunn declares she had been intimately acquainted with Dunn from November, 1908, to the time of his death, and had contracted for a marriage with him, and that of May 5 or 6, 1909, they entered into a written contract of marriage, in which Dunn recognized her as his wife, participated in her property interests, lived with her as his wife, and introduced her to the public as his wife.

Plaintiff claims they lived together until his death, and that he saved her repeatedly as she was provided for financially in the event of his death.

Complaint sought to establish her property interests, but was dismissed, she alleges, of any interest or voice in the disposition of the estate, notwithstanding her frequent demands.

It is alleged by Mrs. Dunn that she permitted him to retain the custody of the contract by reason of his assurance it would be much safer in his deposit box. She says that consent up to the time of his death, she believed that he had the contract for her, and that she relied implicitly upon his statements and her belief that the contract would be forthcoming.

Mrs. Dunn says she believes that the defendants have suppressed the marriage contract for their own personal gain; have fraudulently obtained the probating of the will, and have fraudulently endeavored to deprive her of her lawful interests in the estate.

Mrs. Dunn's maiden name was Mary O'Rourke, and she is a native of Virginia. Before her marriage to Dunn she was employed in a millinery shop at Eleventh and G streets. She now resides at the Octavia.

Dunn left most of his property to his daughters, St. Anne's Church, and St. Joseph's Church received bequests of $500 each, and the Church of the Immaculate Conception received $100. John T. Martin, Dunn's foreman, received an interest in the business.
